agreement grants Nationwide Boiler the rights to sell Webster burners to customers throughout Central and Northern California.

Nationwide Boiler's Director of Sales, Bill Testa, commented, "Webster Combustion Technology's line of efficient, cost-effective boiler burners will complement our current product line very well, providing quality new and reconditioned boiler equipment to customers in California. We are excited to represent a well-respected manufacturing partner that is dedicated to growth and success through listening to customer's needs."

Webster Combustion Technology was established in the 1920's as a multi-fuel boiler burner manufacturer. The company manufactures products that are technically advanced and offer flexibility, high efficiency, low emissions, and high turndown capabilities. Webster burners are available for new equipment and retrofit of existing installations.
